by the community for the development of residents' interests of all stakeholders

• zoned for multiple uses to minimize conflict and maximize the channeling and integration

• enhancing the value of the land

• a place where the value of the natural resources increases,

• managed for productive gain

• a place where wildlife populations increase as they are managed to sustain their population dynamics and provide opportunities for tourism to traditional farming activities

• all its members

• borders and a constituted management body run

2010 – implementation of an annual game count in Sheya Shuushona Conservancy

2003 – policy change allows communal area residents to benefit from wildlife and tourism by forming conservancies

2010 – residents accept the future conservancy's constitution

– His Excellency Dr. Sam Nujoma, Founding President of the Republic of Namibia, who was born in the region, becomes a patron on the conservancy

– Sheya Shuushona Conservancy is registered in September

– residents accept the future conservancy's constitution

– Sheya Shuushona Conservancy is registered in September

– residents accept the future conservancy's constitution

– Sheya Shuushona Conservancy is registered in September

– residents accept the future conservancy's constitution

– Sheya Shuushona Conservancy is registered in September

Apart from providing a variety of economic opportunities, the presence of Sable National Park creates good opportunities for the local communities. Additionally, the revenue from wildlife concessions helps in maintaining the area.

The conservancy is still exploring a variety of tourism development options. Benefits from natural resources

The community enjoys a variety of economic opportunities. The proximity to Sable National Park creates good opportunities for the local communities. Additionally, the revenue from wildlife concessions helps in maintaining the area.

Conservancy activities include game and antelope monitoring, using the Sable Book, illegal fauna wildlife control and facilitating research.

The conservancy provides a variety of economic opportunities. The proximity to Sable National Park creates good opportunities for the local communities. Additionally, the revenue from wildlife concessions helps in maintaining the area.

The conservancy is still exploring a variety of tourism development options.

Benefits from natural resources

The community enjoys a variety of economic opportunities. The proximity to Sable National Park creates good opportunities for the local communities. Additionally, the revenue from wildlife concessions helps in maintaining the area.

Conservancy activities include game and antelope monitoring, using the Sable Book, illegal fauna wildlife control and facilitating research.

The conservancy is still exploring a variety of tourism development options.